- 📖 12 pack good quality colouring pencils (NB. While the choice of which colouring pencils to purchase is completely at the parent's discretion we highly recommend buying a good quality sets such as Staedtler Ergosoft Colouring Pencils as they have soft, break resistant leads which do not break like other cheaper brands and as a result last for many years, with less sharpening needed! They come in a blue hard case which acts as a stand and are available e.g. from Easons/Tesco/ Online etc. Buying a better quality set of colouring pencils will actually save you money as the pencils last so much longer and do not get lost as easily.)
